School Message

Hello Mesa Families,

We want to wish all of our students and families a relaxing fall break. Continued gratitude to all of our staff, families, and community members for your support and partnership in our students' lives.

Warmest greetings on Thanksgiving. May the week be full of happiness, rejuvenation, and joy for you and your loved ones.

Our annual Mesa Cares Campaign has begun and runs through December 14.

The Mesa Cares campaign supports Mesa families in need over the holidays by providing a meal, household necessities, and gifts for the children.

You can contribute the following ways. Please drop off items in the office.

TOY DRIVE:

- Drop off a new, unwrapped toy to the school.

CANNED FOOD DRIVE:

- Drop off canned, pre-packaged, non-perishable food items to the school.

JACKET DRIVE:

- Drop off new or clean/gently used jackets, sweaters, and warm clothing items to the school.

MONETARY DONATIONS:

- Make a monetary donation online at mesapfo.membershiptoolkit.com/mesacares or
- Make a monetary donation in-person.
(Checks accepted- made out to Mesa PFO, with "Mesa Cares" in the memo line.)

We are also in great need of turkeys and hams, so we can provide every family a holiday meal. When you give to this cause, you are directly giving back to our Mesa community.

INTERDISTRICT TRANSFERS

Beginning January 9, 2023, Mesa Union School will begin accepting inter-district transfers for the 2023-24 school year. Inter-district transfer agreements are required for new students that do not reside within the school district boundaries. To acquire an inter-district transfer agreement, you will need to go to your home district and get a signed agreement. Then bring the agreement to the Mesa Union School office. If you have any questions, please contact the school office at 805-485-1411.
